Note: The test proctor should insure safety at all times and immediately instruct the test team leader to correct any deficiency or unsafe condition. The proctor has the authority to stop or terminate the test if satisfactory corrections are not made.

Check the following:	Yes	No
1. Is the physical site adequate to accommodate the testing?
2. Are the testing stations properly separated and clearly identified?
3. Do the testing stations have the correct equipment as recommended by the OFFT to properly evaluate the test candidate? (hoses, nozzles, ladders, etc.)
4. Is there an adequate ration of evaluators to test candidates? (minimum of 1 evaluator per station - a combined station would require 1 evaluator)
5. Are sufficient safety precautions being taken?
6. Is approved protective clothing and equipment being properly worn and used?
7. Did the evaluators read the station directions to each test candidate?
8. Did you (the proctor) check each test candidate's I.D.?
9. Did you (the proctor) and the Course Manager or designee review the Practical Skills Examination sheets for completeness and accuracy?

Note: If any item is marked NO, identify by item number and explain in comment section.
